

LIEDTEXTE One

1) Tranquility

I met an angel recently
Her grief it hurt my soul to see
Somebody had broken her wings
I tried to mend them so she could fly again
Away from me

There's no use mourning gloomily
For yesterday's tranquility
Cast off the past and start anew
For life is beautiful and so are you

2) Lazy Sunday Afternoon

Another lazy Sunday afternoon
But luckily it will be over soon
No one around to rescue me from myself
I long for company, I just need somebody else

To make me feel alive again
'Cause you are out of reach and just a friend
But know that I'll remember you eternally
Our souls will always stay in tune
Although more wasn't meant to be yet
But one fine day...

Sounds strange to me but I know I should be so glad Because of all the beautiful moments we've had Friendship lost long ago was present again
But now I'm lonely and I miss you my friend

It puts a bittersweet smile upon my face
When I'm reminded of what can never be erased
Can't live off memories so I have to move on Like you already did I've got to find someone

To make me feel alive again
'Cause you are out of reach and just a friend
But know that I'll remember you eternally
Our souls will always stay in tune
Although more wasn't meant to be yet
But one fine day...

The three of us together... happiness...
Be it in this life or the next... I can wait...
Patiently... I can wait...
Till we'll be one... till we'll be one
I can wait... We'll be one
